COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS

IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

By an Act of the Legislature, March 24, 1791, the Regents of the University of the State of New York, were authorized to establish a College of Physicians and Surgeons in the State; and on the 12th of March, 1807, they, by Charter, created the "College of Physicians and Surgeons in the City of New York."

The first Course of Lectures began on the 7th of November, 1807, and continued four months. Regular courses were delivered during the next two ensuing winters; but the first Commencement was held in March, 1811.
